

Austin pharmacy initiates medication take-back program

by KVUE News

Posted on April 23, 2010 at 11:01 AM

Downtown Austin's Live Oak Pharmacy has a new program meant to keep old medications out of the city's water supply.

The free take back program lets you drop off expired medication to be properly disposed.

For more information on the program, go to Live Oak Pharmacy's website.

Add another comment